Second Swiss hostage freed in Beirut

DAMASCUS, Syria — Kidnappers in south Lebanon freed a Swiss hostage after 10 months of captivity, releasing Elio Erriquez to Syrian officials there who took him to Damascus and handed him over to the Swiss ambassador early

"I am happy, very, very happy," Red Cross worker Erriquez, 24, said at the Foreign Ministry before being whisked away by Swiss Ambassador Eric Pfister minutes after his arrival in the Syrian capital.

Another Swiss hostage, Emanuel Christen, 33, was freed on Wednesday. Like Erriquez, Christen was an orthopedic technician with the International Committee of the Red Cross. Both men were kidnapped on Oct. 6, in Sidon, 25 miles south of Beirut.

In Beirut, a late-night communique from a group calling itself the Organization of the Palestinian Revolutionary Squads said Erriquez was handed over on Monday to a representative of Brig. Gen. Ghazi Kenaan, chief of Syria's military intelligence in Lebanon. The group said earlier that Erriquez was freed at the behest of Syria, Libya and Algeria.

Syria's state minister for foreign affairs, Nasser Qaddour, turned the hostage over at 12:03 a.m. Tuesday after he was driven from Lebanon. Erriquez, wearing a white shirt and white pants, looked pale but well as his ordeal ended. He was driven to Pfister's residence in Damascus.

Berlin Wall anniversary celebrated

WEST BERLIN — Flowers were laid beside a cross honoring a teen-ager who was slain trying to escape to freedom as Germans from East and West on Monday marked the 29th anniversary of the Berlin Wall. The ceremony, the first joint memorial of the Aug. 13, 1961, construction of the Berlin Wall, included a prediction by a local politician that the scar left by the crumbling barrier will never fade. East German Defense Minister Rainer Eppelmann demanded criminal probes of those responsible for the shoot-to-kill orders at the wall under the former Communist regime. Eppelmann said the now-ousted Communist officials must be brought to By KIM NORMAN justice "in a fair way." Communist border soldiers killed 80 East Germans making dashes for freedom at the wall, while hundreds of others were caught and imprisoned for trying. Germans are engaged in an emotional debate over whether the soldiers themselves should be brought to trial.

Charges filed against Challenger program

MANTI - Kane County officials filed criminal charges Monday against the Challenger Foundation and its director in the wake of alleged abuses and the death of a girl enrolled in the wilderness therapy program.

With the criminal complaint, Sheriff Maxwell Jackson fulfilled a month-long to children like Jerry and Jay. The promise to charge the program and founder Stephen Cartisano with negligent homicide in connection with the June 27 death of 16-year-old Kristen Chase. The complaint signed by 6th Circuit Judge David L. Mower also named homeless children in the Salt Lake Challenger counselor Lance Jagger. Cartisano and Challenger additionally were charged with six counts of child abuse. Mower set a Sept. 13 arraignment date. The charges are the latest in a series of setbacks for the embattled Sandy Hutchinson, the foundation's wilderness survival program for troubled teens. Chase, of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., collapsed while hiking atop the rugged Kaiparowits Plateau in the southern Utah desert with three other youngsters. An autopsy revealed she died of heat stroke, likely complicated by altitude and near triple-digit temperatures. Barry turns independent, may run again

WASHINGTON — Mayor Marion Barry dropped his Democratic affiliation and declared himself an independent Monday, saying he wanted to "keep (his) options open" for a possible political comeback.

Barry political advisers have said the mayor, who was convicted Friday of a said misdemeanor cocaine possession charge and acquitted of another, intends to run for a city council seat. But Barry refused to rule out anything — including a much welcomed grant from the Hasanother bid for mayor.

His trial jury was unable to reach a verdict on 12 charges — including three felony perjury counts — and the U.S. attorney has said he will decide within the next month whether to retry Barry.

Barry, at a news conference, was asked how it would feel running against an old colleague who is also seeking an at-large council seat.

"You're assuming I'm not running for mayor," Barry retorted.

Pressed on the issue, Barry said, "I have a lot of options...and I believe I still have a significant contribution to make to the city I love."

MANYKEYPIECES OF BIBLE MISSING -- Until Now

Originally the Bible contained "the fulness of the gospel of the Lord." Later careless and conspiring men took away "many parts which are plain and precious." (1 Nephi 13.) Many of these precious truths have been restored to the earth in the latter days. However, these fragmented truths are hard to find and to make fit in. Many of these truths are lost from view in the Joseph Smith Translation of the Bible. Only some of them even appear in footnotes or the appendix of the new L.D.S. edition of the Bible. Others are scattered throughout the Doctrine and Covenants, the Book of Mormon, the Pearl of Great Price and the teachings of Joseph Smith. Some lie in the obscurities of the King James Bible text. These additional truths are priceless but concealed gems. New contributions have been accessible until now only to those who have searched diligently to find each one of them. At last--these lost truths are lost no more! Virtually all of them have been carefully retrieved and tually all of them have been carefully retrieved and placed back into context in Genesis, the gospels and Acts to Revelation. Literally thousands of enhancements have been made to Biblical text in these exciting new editions of Scriptures Made Whole -- from modern scripture, faithful synthesis and latter day scholarship. Key portions of the Holy Bible no longer have their former gaps and holes. And with added new helps, you can quickly locate any scripture you wish to find and then easily read and understand it.

These scriptural reconstructions were a sixteen year labor by L.D.S. scholar Todd G. Andersen and have been published by Best Books Publishing. Genesis Made Whole ($12.95) and The Gospels Made Whole ($15.95) are available now at the B.Y.U. Bookstore and other fine L.D.S. bookstores. Watch for Acts to Revelation Made Whole ($15.95) in November 1990. Prepare now for your best ever Gospel Doctrine study of the New Testament in 1991 by obtaining your own copies of these new books. (Leatherette prices given; add $4 for hardcovers.)

The semiannual evaluation of Utah's top-ranking elected officials was released last week by Dan Jones & Co.

According to the results of the opinion poll, Sen. Jake Garn once again had the highest approval rating.

The poll, taken in June, asked Utahns to evaluate Gov. Norm Bangerter and the members of Utah's congressional delegation, which includes Garn, Sen. Orrin Hatch, Rep. Wayne Owens and Rep. Jim Hansen. Garn received more than 70 percent
